Discover Fourth Cliff

Operated by the 66th Force Support Squadron at Hanscom AFB, MA, the Fourth Cliff Recreation Area is midway between Boston and Cape Cod. Boston is about 30 miles north, and the town of Plymouth, where the pilgrims first landed, is about 20 miles south. Fourth Cliff was once an Army coastal artillery station and part of the WWII Boston Harbor coastal defenses. It is now a 56-acre military recreation lodging area that sits on a cliff overlooking the North and South Rivers on the west side and the Atlantic Ocean on the east side. With a beach that will fascinate all ages, you can watch beautiful sunrises and sun-sets. Surfing and bottom fishing is available, with a license. We have RV and Tent camping sites.

Authorized patrons include Active Duty Military, Reserves, Retirees, DoD Cardholders, and their families.

Directions

From the North: Take I-95 South to I-93 North to Rt. 3 South, Exit 27 (Marshfield/Pembroke). Turn right on Rt. 139 towards Marshfield. Go 1.5 miles to 4th traffic light, and turn left onto Furnace St. Continue to "T" intersection and turn left onto Ferry St. Follow to Sea St. and turn right. Cross over the bridge and turn left onto Central Ave. Bear left to the Fourth Cliff gate at the fork in the road.

From Route 3 Northbound: Take Exit 27 (Marshfield). Turn left onto Rt. 139. Follow directions above.

From Boston: Take I-93 South to MA Rt. 3 South. Follow directions above. (Do not take Exit 27 off I-93 South when coming from Boston.)
